1891.

TO OUR FRIENDS,
THE PRINTING FRATERNITY,
GREETING:—

RINDLY accept, with our compliments, a copy of the latest edition of our specimen book of Stock Electrotypes. We ask for it your careful examination, the result of which, we feel assured, will obtain for it a prominent place among your collection of typographical specimens.

In its production our aim has been to gather into one compact volume the most desirable designs from former issues, together with a vast array of new and original ideas, which have developed in the successive issues of our publication, THE ELECTROTYPE JOURNAL, since the printing of our last catalogue in 1885.

Neither labor nor expense has been spared to make this book a valuable one to all who use stock cuts, and well worthy of careful preservation, and we therefore feel justified in saying to our friends: Do not, under any circumstances, mutilate this specimen book. Every cut being numbered, it is only necessary when ordering to give the number to insure a correct filling of your order.

In perusing the subjoined pages, the attention of the artist-printer will undoubtedly be attracted by the beautiful trade headings on pages 1 to 7, inclusive, which have been engraved in perfect lithographic style by our new Lithogravure process. It affords us especial pleasure in this connection to add that these artistic headings are, from beginning to end, the product of our own establishment, and we take this opportunity to state that we are prepared to furnish special designs of the same character to order ▲ on short notice.

To parties who have no open account with us we wish to say, that a great deal of unnecessary and vexatious delay in filling their orders will be avoided by enclosing with same bank draft or money order for amount of their purchases. Small packages can be sent safely and cheaply through the mail, if registered, but a proper allowance should be made for postage (one cent per ounce), besides ten cents for registering.

Tendering our grateful acknowledgments to all our patrons and friends, for the liberal encouragement so kindly extended to us in the past, we solicit a continuance of their favors, with the assurance that we shall always strive to maintain in the future the reputation our house has gained in the past for the superior quality of its productions.

FIRST MEMORY.

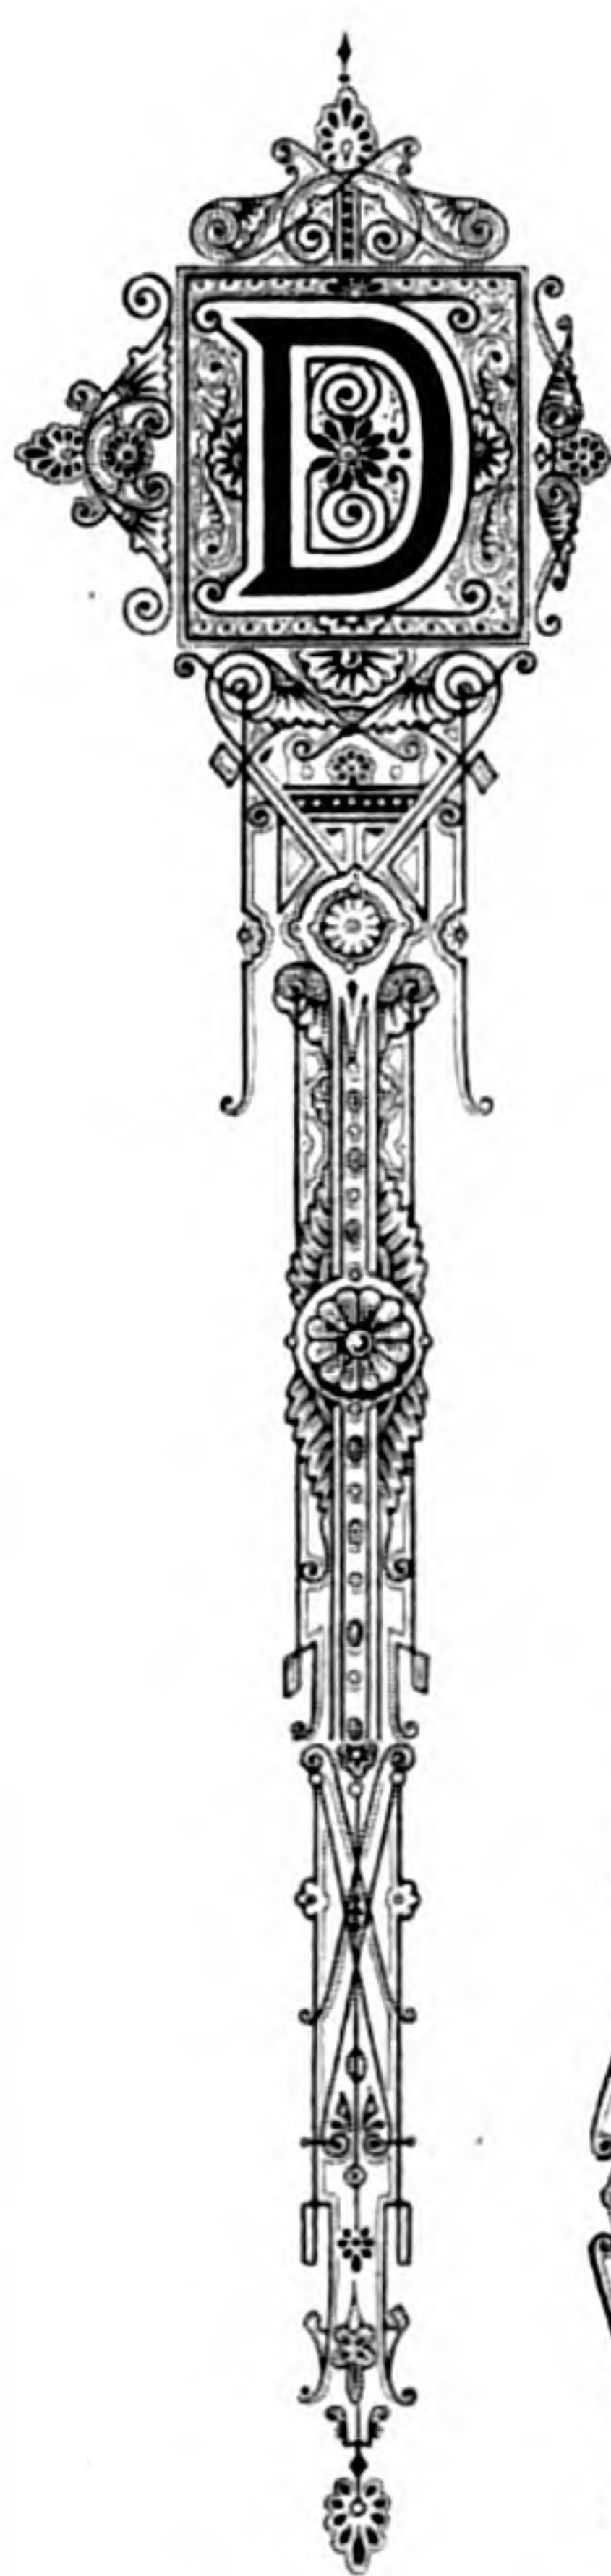

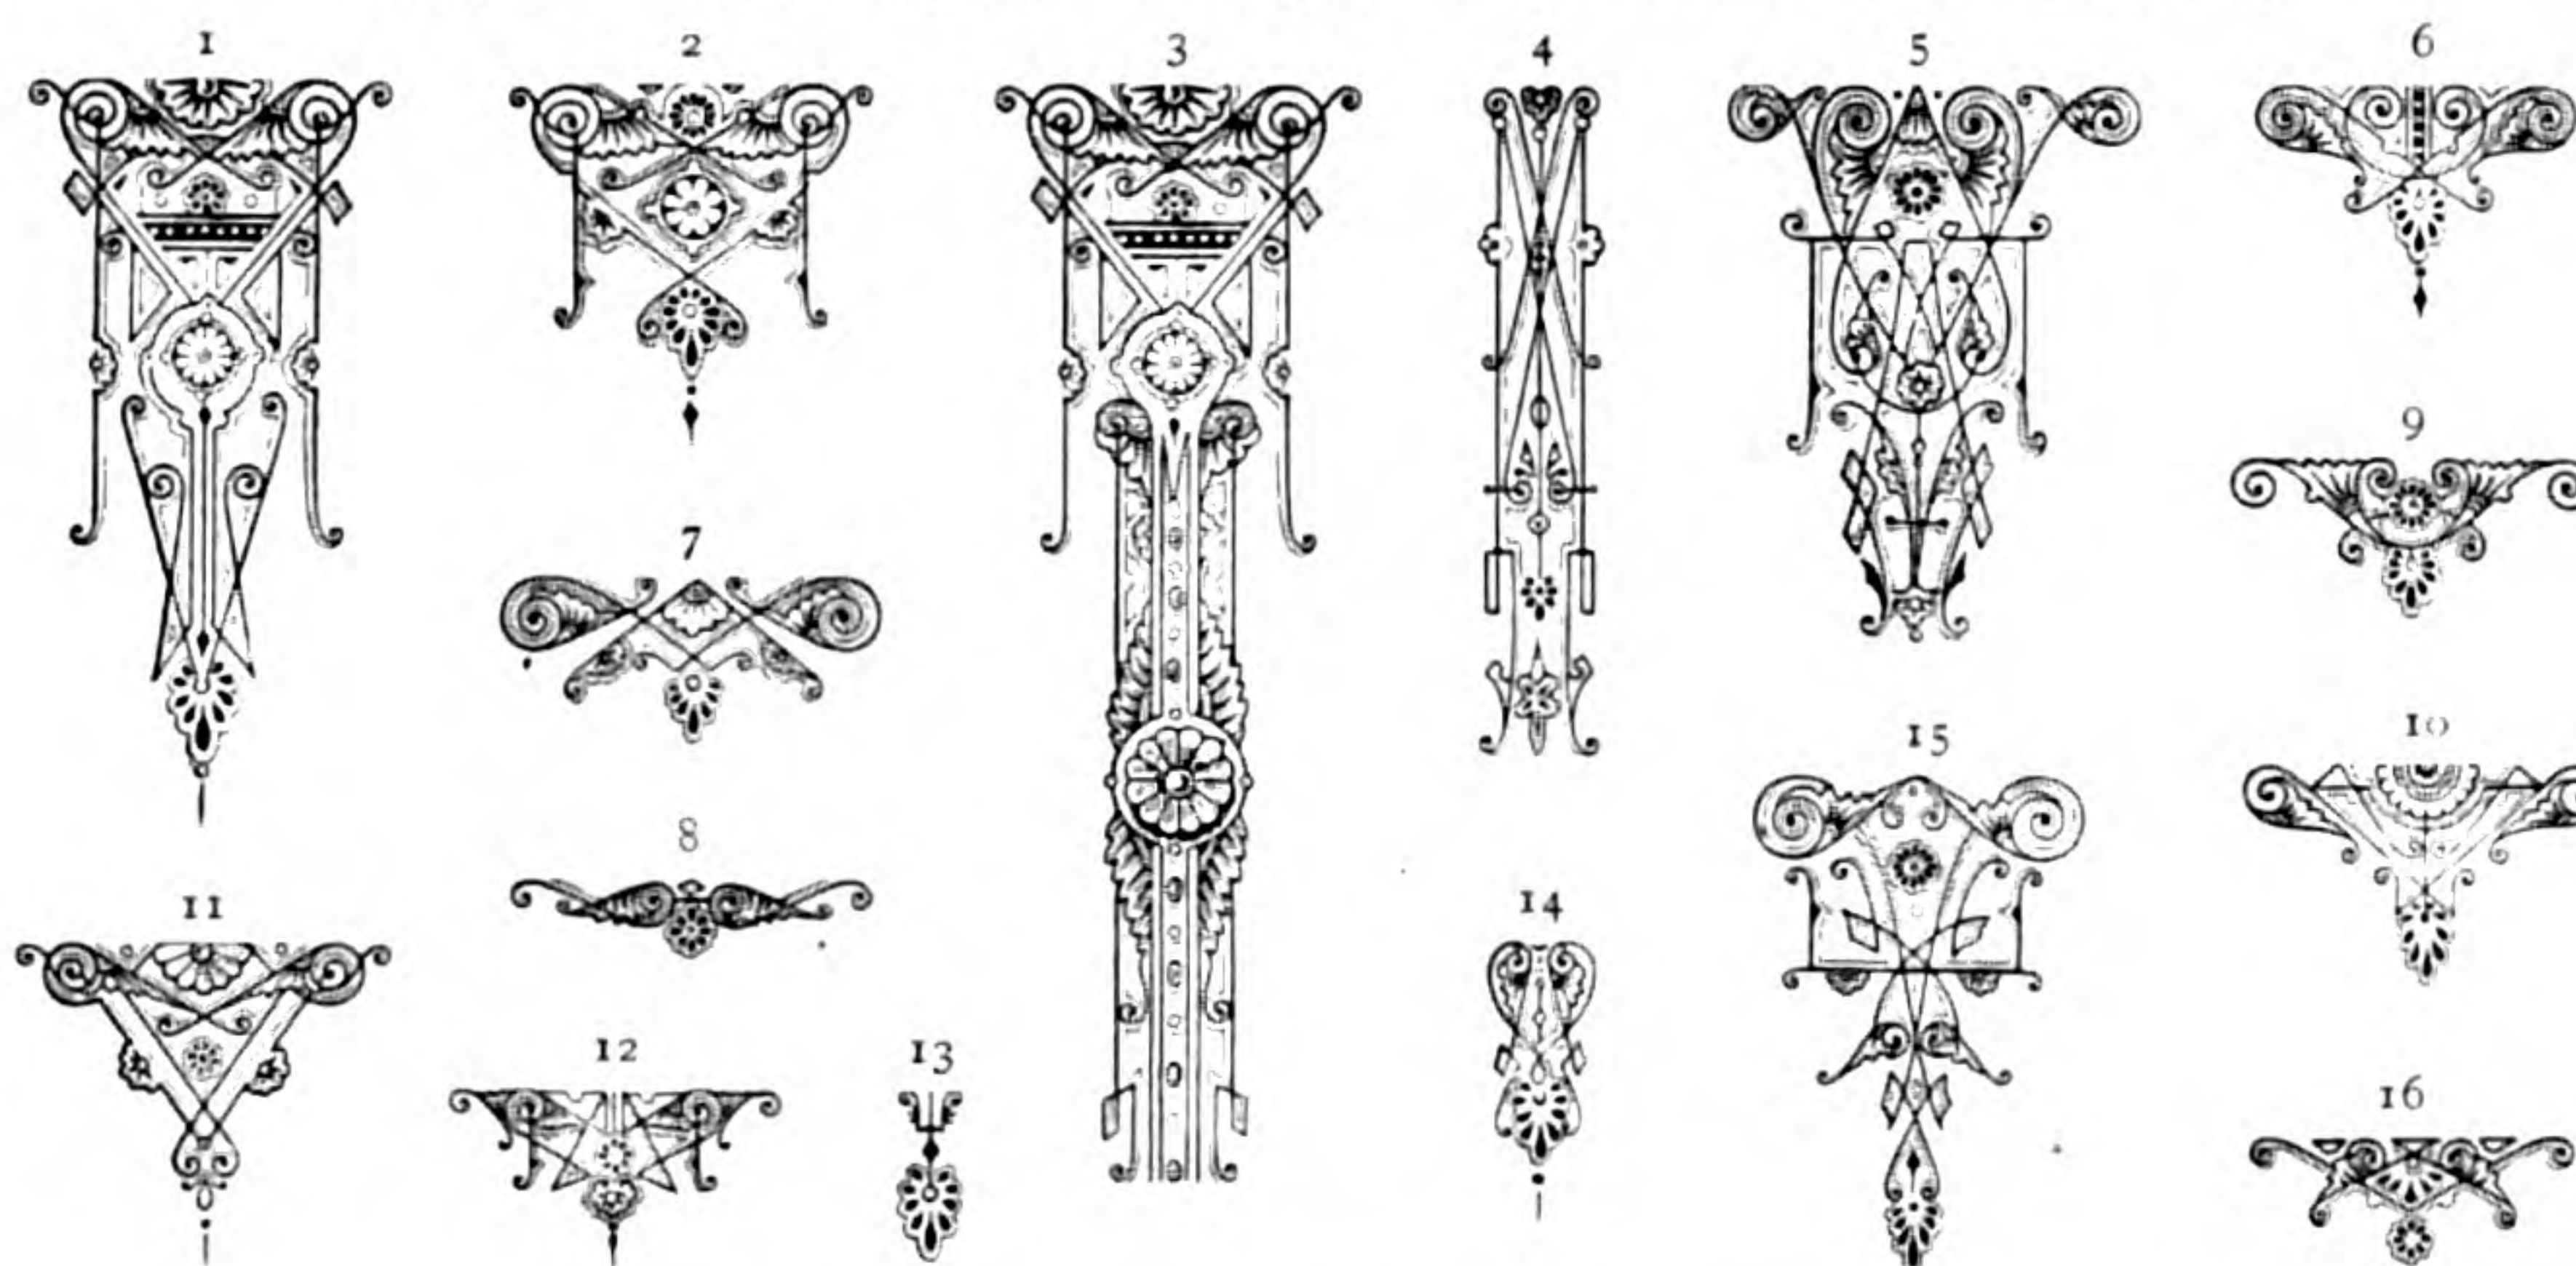

CHILDHOOD has its secrets and its mysteries: but who can tell, who can explain them! We have all roamed through this silent wonder-wood—we have all once opened our eyes in blissful astonishment, as the beautiful reality of life overflowed our souls. We knew not where, or who, we were—the whole world was ours and we were the whole world's. That was an infinite life—without beginning and without end, without rest and without pain. In the heart, it was as clear as the spring heavens, fresh as the violet's perfume—hushed and holy as a Sabbath morning.

What disturbs this God's-peace of the child? How can this unconscious and innocent existence ever cease?
